COTTON PRICES ARE LOWER AT CLOSING

General List Shows Net Drop of From 5 to 22 Points at Finish.

After recovering nearly a cent of Tuesday's losses during yesterday's trading the cotton market sold off very rapidly under a renewal of heavy general realising accompanied by reports of an easier spot basis and increased Southern selling. October contracts broke from 31.70 to 30.68, or 12 tracts broke from 31.70 to 30.65, or 12 points net lower, and closed at 30.75, with the general list burely steady at a net decline of 5 to 52 points.

The market opened strong at an advance of 46 to 50 points on unexpectedly high Liverpool cables, a wet weather map, buillah private condition figures and reports of a continued active demand from the mills or spot shippers. July sold up to 32.70 and December to 31.26 right after the call, or 74 to 30 points net higher, with October showing a recovery of 110 points from Tuesday's low level. Offerings increased on this advance and the market turned easier during the middle of the morning. The decline and moderate midday rallies on reports of a good spot demand were followed by increased weakness during the afternoon. Southern seiling was more of a factor on that break than previously and the drop extended to 31.65 for July and 80.30 for December. The New York Cotton Exchange will not be open to-morrow and Saturday. That of Liverpool will be open to-morrow.

New ORLEANS, May 25.—A rise of nearly $5 a bale occurred in the early trading in cotton to-day, but the market had more or less of a reactionary feeling toward the end. The improvement was replaced by a net decline. Closing prices were: July, 31.77c.; October, 30c.; December, 29.72c.; January, 29.45c.; March, 29.35c. Spot steady, 28 points up; midding, 32.38c.

WAGES WILL STAY UP, SAYS DU PONT

Tells Secretary Wilson Belief That Present Level Is Permanent.

Special Desputch to THE BUN. WASHINGTON, May 25 .- "Supply and temand, now as always, decides prices," Coleman du Pont states in a communication received to-day by Secretary of Labor Wilson. Mr. du Pont believes, however, that wages will be higher when things settle down. The letter follows:

"So long as there is a demand for an article its price will be high. The greater the demand the higher the price, and if the cost of the article is mostly labor the price of labor will continue high on that article and see of down. high on that article, and so on down the list. Local weather conditions may affect local crops in certain districts and this will make that article high, at least in that district, because the demand for it will be great by reason of the low it will be great by reason of the low production, and so long as materials, in-cluding foodstuffs, are high, labor can-not go down much, although it is likely that labor will be lowered in price due to a lowering in price of commodity. "We are going through a transition period which has followed and will folow every economic disturbance. Will wages be higher when things settle down than before? Yes, I think they will, be-cause wages have continued to advance in this country year after year, but the cost of living and the desire for luxuries too has advanced so that relatively the condition is the same."

Quicksilver jumped $10 a flask. The mercurials, camphor and glycerin stood out as strong features. The market for crude drugs is broadening out.

The difficulty experienced in obtaining dye bases and dyewoods has led importers to advance their prices. Intermediates are lower and supplies in second hands are reported as quite large. Henzol is in good demand and stocks are being rapidly reduced.

In the heavy chemical market there is still a downward tendency in prices, especially for acids, owing to the large supplies on hand. There is a good demand for caustic soda for export, and domestic consumers are placing larger orders for soda ash. Bleaching powder is weak, Copper sulphate is firmer. Bichroniate and carbonate of potash and yellow prussiate of potash are easier.

the trade here another will go into effect early next month. Altogether the advances will aggregate about 15 per cent. On some lines, perhaps a little more on a cthers. A few have gone up but 10 per cent. There is said to be a scarcity of desirable merchandise in certain weaves.

The trade is active as the result of liberal purchases by retailers and milliners.

"Buy Now" Campaign Indorsed.

St. Louis, May 28.—The Huy Now campaign instituted by the United States Department of Labor was indorsed today at the convention of the National Retail Dry Goods Association, Among the retailers the opinion is practically unanimous that now is the time to join in the buying movement in order to stimulate production and to overcome unemployment.

The statement was made at the meeting of manufacturers and wholesalers that high prices for some time to come can be expected as a result of the hand to mouth policy of the retailers adopted when the war ended.
